Tea of Life Apothecary:

A Welcoming Place to Learn, Sip, and Connect

In downtown Chillicothe, Tea of Life Apothecary brings together handcrafted herbal products, practical education, and a personal touch.

Almost four years ago, Angel Altman, owner of Tea of Life Apothecary, brought a locally owned herbal shop to our downtown. This is a place where wellness and community come together. You'll find loose-leaf teas, herbal blends, tinctures, wellness products, and gifts—all thoughtfully selected or handcrafted with care.

Founded from Angel's health journey and experience as a nurse and clinical herbalist, the shop blends traditional wisdom with modern knowledge. It's more than a store—it's a place to learn, sip, and connect.

Tea of Life hosts events, classes, tea tastings, and trivia gatherings that make learning about herbs fun and accessible. Education, guidance, and a listening ear are always part of the experience.

Downtown connection matters here. The shop proudly collaborates with local businesses and partners with SA Integrative Health, which offers consultations, acupuncture, dry needling, ozone therapy, and a whole-person approach to care.
